THE MONTH OF MARY

Reflections by Catherine Doherty

This is the month of Mary, the Mother of God and of men and women. Why not take this month off from worry and fears—from shallow amusements and useless recreations?

Why not begin a journey inward to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, to learn from her the secret of the King, her Son—the secret that would change our lives, and with them that of the world, the secret of infinite charity, of God's peace, and Mary's joy—the secret and art of being before God and doing for God?

This is not easy for restless, modern men and women, who have wandered far from the truths and ways of God. Fortunately, we can start by turning to a creature like us, a woman who will lead us along the royal road to God, her Son. Yes, we can start easily enough, by turning to Mary, the Mother of God, who has made this century her own. Mediatrix of All Graces! Queen of all hearts! A human being who clothed God with our flesh! She knows all the answers. And she stands ready—nay, she is eager-to-give them to all who turn to her.

The woman who spent her time on earth cloaked in silence is speaking to us today from Lourdes, Fatima, and many other places. If only we took time to listen and to ponder her words, ours would be a century of peace, ours would be lives of joy.

HOLY INNOCENTS BOOKSHELF

The Shepherd Who Didn't Run:
Father Stanley Rother, Martyr from Oklahoma

by María Ruiz Scaperlanda

Fr. Stanley Rother was true to his word. He did not run. And was martyred at the age of 46.

Fr. Stanley arrived in Guatemala in 1968, and immediately identified with his parishioners' simple, farming lifestyle. He learned their languages, prepared them for the Sacraments, and cared for their needs. Fr. Stanley, or "Padre Francisco" as he was called by his beloved Tz'utujil Indians, had found his heart's calling.

After nearly a decade, the violence of the Guatemalan civil war found its way into the peaceful village. Disappearances, killings, and danger became daily occurrences, but despite this unrest Fr. Stanley remained hard at work, building a farmer's co-op, a school, a hospital, and the first Catholic radio station, used for catechesis.

In early 1981, his name was on a death list, so he returned to Oklahoma and was warned not to return. But he could not abandon his people, so he went back, and made the ultimate sacrifice for his faith.

"Pray for us that we may be a sign of the love of Christ for our people," said Fr. Stanley, "that our presence among them will fortify them to endure these sufferings in preparation for the coming of the Kingdom."

Available in the Bookstore in the Parish Office

Blessed Stanley Rother, pray for us!

CINCTURE DONOR

Anyone interested in donating $500 for about 10 Priest's cinctures, please contact the Rectory. The name of the donor and their intention will be published on the Sunday issue of the Parish Bulletin.

Spiritually, the cincture reminds the priest of the admonition of St. Peter: "So gird the loins of your understanding; live soberly; set all your hope on the gift to be conferred on you when Jesus Christ appears. As obedient sons, do not yield to the desires that once shaped you in your ignorance. Rather, become holy yourselves in every aspect of your conduct, after the likeness of the holy One who called you" (1 Peter 1:13-15). The former vesting prayer was "Gird me, O Lord, with the cincture of purity and extinguish in my heart the fire of concupiscence so that, the virtue of continence and chastity always abiding in my heart, I may better serve Thee."

NEW MASS CARDS

There are now available in the Rectory Office three new styles of Mass Cards for the deceased (larger padded folder): The "Return Crucifix" (white), Divine Mercy (red) and Our Mother of Perpetual Help (blue). The cards cost $5.00 in addition to the usual offering of $15.00 for the Mass.

Make friends with the Saints now, as we hope to spend Eternity with them in Heaven!

BLESSED STANLEY FRANCIS ROTHER

Father Stanley Francis Rother was born March 27, 1935, in Okarche, Oklahoma. Ordained a priest for what was then the Diocese of Oklahoma City and Tulsa, he served in the diocese's mission in Guatemala for 13 years. Seeking justice in the midst of a protracted civil war, Father Rother fought courageously for the well-being of his people in combating a culture that was excessively hostile to the Catholic Church.

The oldest of four children born to Franz and Gertrude Rother, Father Rother grew up on a farm in Okarche and attended Holy Trinity Catholic Church and School.

Being a normal child raised on a farm, he worked hard doing the required chores, attended school, played sports, was an altar server and enjoyed the activities associated with growing up in a small town.

While in high school, he began to discern the possibility of a vocation to the priesthood. He was accepted as a seminarian and was sent to Assumption Seminary in San Antonio, Texas.

The journey to ordination was not without its challenges. More practical than academic by nature, young Stanley struggled with Latin, which at the time was a critical requirement since the entire curriculum was being taught in Latin. Due to his difficulties, he was asked to leave the seminary as his grades were inadequate.

He sought the counsel of Bishop Victor Reed. It was decided that Stanley would be allowed a second chance, enrolling at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland. He graduated from the Mount and was ordained a priest on May 25, 1963. Father Rother served as an associate pastor for five years in Oklahoma. Heeding the call of Pope John XXIII, he sought and received permission to join the staff at the diocese's mission in Santiago Atitlan, Guatemala.

Father Rother's connection with the people of Santiago Atitlan was immediate. He served the native tribe of the Tz'utujil, who are decedents of the Mayans. In order to serve his people, Father Rother had to speak Spanish and the Tz'utujil language. He not only learned both languages, but his working knowledge of Tz'utujil enabled him to celebrate Mass in their language and help translate the New Testament. Tz'utujil was not a written language until the Oklahoma mission team arrived and so, despite his past issues with Latin, what he accomplished was remarkable.

As the years passed, Father Rother tried to live a simpler life to be in communion with his people. He was surrounded by extreme poverty with the Tz'utujil living in one-room huts growing what they could on their small plots of land.

Father Rother ministered to his parishioners in their homes; eating with them, visiting the sick and aiding them with medical problems. He even put his farming skills to use by helping them in the fields, bringing in different crops, and building an irrigation system.

While he served in Guatemala, a civil war raged between the militarist government forces and the guerrillas. The Catholic Church was caught in the middle due to its insistence on catechizing and educating the people. During this conflict, thousands of Catholics were killed.

For a time, the violence was contained in the cities, but it soon came to the highlands and Santiago Atitlan. Catechists began to disappear, people slept in the church for protection and death lists began to circulate in the towns.

Eventually, Father Rother's name appeared on the death list after a parishioner from an Oklahoma parish sent a complaint about Father Rother to the Guatemalan embassy, saying he was advocating for the overthrow of the government in his preaching by supporting his local residents. For his safety and that of his associate, Father Rother returned home to Oklahoma. He didn't stay long. He was determined to give his life completely to his people, stating that "the shepherd cannot run." Returning to Santiago Atitlan, he continued the work of the mission.

Within a few months of his return, three men entered the rectory around 1 a.m. on July 28, 1981, fought with Father Rother and then executed him. His death shocked the Catholic world. No one was ever held responsible.

The people of Santiago Atitlan mourned the loss of their leader and friend. His memory continues to stir the passion of the people he served with dignity and vigor. Because of the affection and veneration that the people of Santiago Atitlan displayed for the priest, they requested that Father Rother's heart be kept in Guatemala where it remains enshrined today.

On Dec. 2, 2016, Pope Francis officially recognized Father Rother as a martyr for the faith. He is the first American-born martyr and the first U.S. priest to be beatified. Cardinal Angelo Amato celebrated the Rite of Beatification on Sept. 23, 2017, at the Cox Convention Center in downtown Oklahoma City.

Prayer Cards and leaflets of Blessed Stanley Rother are available in the vestibule

The Shrine to the Unborn

Blessed by Cardinal O'Connor on December 28, 1993

*The Shrine is dedicated in Memory of the Children
Who Have Died Unborn
We invite you to name your child(ren) and provide the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "Book of Life".*

Often children who have died before birth have no grave or headstone, and sometimes not even a name. At The Church of The Holy Innocents, we invite you to name your child(ren) and to have the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "BOOK OF LIFE". Here, a candle is always lit in their memory. All day long people stop to pray. On the first Monday of every month, our 12:15pm Mass is celebrated in honor of these children and for the comfort of their families. We pray that you will find peace in knowing that your child(ren) will be remembered at the Shrine and honored by all who pray here.

We will inscribe the names of babies who have died before and at birth in our Book of Life, and as always, we invite you to visit the Shrine if you are in New York City.

SUBWAY ROSARY

Our Regina Mundi Praesidium of the Legion of Mary conducts a Subway Rosary on the second and fourth Saturdays of the month.
