FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

Thursday, May 31 is the Feast of Corpus Christi (the Body of Christ). Following the 6:00 p.m. High Mass there will be an outdoor Eucharistic Procession to three altars for benediction. In case of inclement weather the procession will be held inside the church. Sunday, June 3 is the External Solemnity of Corpus Christi. As per the indult given in the USA on November 25, 1885 under Pope Leo XIII, the Mass of Corpus Christi with the Eucharistic Procession will be repeated following the 10:30 a.m. High Mass, but will be held indoors and without triple benediction.

ALL ARE SENT

Fifty days after Easter Sunday we celebrate the fulfillment of all God's promises in the feast of Pentecost, a feast that has sometimes been called the birthday of the church. One last time we are reminded that we Christians have received the Holy Spirit, not for our own benefit, but to enable us to follow our Christian vocation.

The centerpiece of the scriptures for Pentecost is the account in Acts of the Apostles of the sending of the Holy Spirit to the disciples. The other readings for this Sunday help us to understand what it means to live out our Christian vocation. Paul's letter shows us the gifts and fruits that the Holy Spirit gives to us. John's Gospel reminds us that Jesus has sent all his disciples to share his forgiveness and peace, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

On February 11, 2018, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, at the decision of Pope Francis, inscribed a new Obligatory Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, into the General Roman Calendar as a way to foster Marian piety and the maternal sense of the church. This Memorial will be celebrated every year on the Monday after Pentecost. This year, for the first time, this celebration will take place on May 21.

HOLY INNOCENTS BOOKSHELF

Saint Mary Magdalene
Prophetess of Eucharistic Love
By: Fr. Sean Davidson

Adoration is love, and Eucharistic adoration is love of Christ present in the Blessed Sacrament. In the gospels there are few people who understand love for Jesus as well as Mary Magdalene, which is the reason she is a prophetess of Eucharistic love. This work is an extended meditation on the life of Saint Mary Magdalene, known as the "Apostle to the Apostles" because the risen Christ appeared to her first and then sent her to announce the resurrection to the apostles. Based on the biblical texts traditionally associated with Mary Magdalene, this book helps readers to learn from her inspiring example and to enter more deeply into adoration of Jesus Christ truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

In telling the story of Mary Magdalene's profound conversion after the Lord had to expel seven demons from her soul, this book shows how she is a shining witness to the transforming power of an encounter with Jesus Christ. Mary Magdalene is the perfect model for those who have experienced the redeeming love of Christ and who seek to deepen their devotion to him and to the Eucharist.

"Saint Mary Magdalene reminds us of the need to recover the primacy of God and the primacy of adoration in the life of the Church and in the liturgical celebration."

—Cardinal Robert Sarah, Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship, Author, God or Nothing: A Conversation on Faith

Available in the Bookstore in the Parish Office

Quotes on the Holy Spirit

According to the degree to which the intellect is stripped of the passions, the Holy Spirit initiates the intellect into the mysteries of the age to be.'

--St. Thalassios the Libyan

O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams.

--Saint Augustine

Virtues are formed by prayer. Prayer preserves temperance. Prayer suppresses anger. Prayer prevents emotions of pride and envy. Prayer draws into the soul the Holy Spirit, and raises man to Heaven.

-- St. Ephraem

If we approach with faith, we too will see Jesus... for the Eucharistic table takes the place of the crib.

Here the Body of the Lord is present, wrapped not in swaddling clothes but in the rays of the Holy Spirit.

-- St. John Chrysostom

Enrich your soul in the great goodness of God: The Father is your table, the Son is your food, and the Holy Spirit waits on you and then makes His dwelling in you.

-- St. Catherine of Siena

In the heart of Jesus, which was pierced, the kingdom of heaven and the land of earth are bound together. Here is for us the source of life. This heart is the heart of the Triune Divinity, and the center of all human hearts... It draws us to itself with secret power, it conceals us in itself in the Father's bosom and floods us with the Holy Spirit. This heart, it beats for us in a small tabernacle where it remains mysteriously hidden in that still, white host

-- St. Edith Stein

You could not love Jesus if you did not possess the living source of holy and pure love, namely, the Holy Spirit. Our divine Redeemer said, "He that believeth in Me, out of his belly shall flow streams of living water." (John 7:38.) This He said of the spirit which they should receive who believed in Him. Therefore, when God enkindles in you the flames of divine love, holy, pure, and without stain, let yourself disappear in the infinite Good, and, like an infant, sleep the sleep of faith and love in the bosom of your heavenly Spouse.

- St. Paul of the Cross

Come, Holy Spirit. Spirit of truth, you are the reward of the saints, the comforter of souls, light in the darkness, riches to the poor, treasure to lovers, food for the hungry, comfort to those who are wandering; to sum up, you are the one in whom all treasures are contained. Come! As you descended upon Mary that the Word might become flesh, work in us through grace as you worked in her through nature and grace. Come! Food of every chaste thought, fountain of all mercy, sum of all purity. Come! Consume in us whatever prevents us from being consumed in you.

- St. Mary Magdalene de Pazzi

BLESSED ELENA GUERRA - "Apostle of the Holy Ghost"

Elena Guerra was born in Lucca on 23 June 1835 as one of six children to Antonio Guerra and Faustina Franceschi. In her childhood she was known to be talented but timid in nature. Guerra made her Confirmation on 5 June 1843.

Guerra studied French as well as music and art but also learnt Latin and the lives and works of the Church Fathers during the time of her illness since her free time and convalescence enabled it; this illness spanned from 1857 to 1864 and she could not leave the house because of it. Guerra also worked alongside the Vincentians. Cholera struck Lucca in 1853 and she tended to the ill after her parents granted her permission to do so. In 1866 she established her own congregation in order to dedicate herself to the education of girls which she decided would be the sole focus of her life. It was called the Order of Saint Zita in honor of the patron saint of Lucca to whom she also had an admiration for. One of her students was Saint Gemma Galgani.

Guerra travelled to Rome in 1870 to attend a session of the First Vatican Council that Pope Pius IX had convened. Guerra and her father made an Easter Pilgrimage there in April 1870 and visited the tomb of Saint Peter before she was able to meet with the pope on 23 June 1870. It was about a decade later that she corresponded with Pope Leo XIII through 12 different personal letters and asked him to rekindle in the faithful devotion to the Holy Spirit. Holding Guerra's work in great esteem, Leo XIII responded with three documents between 1895 and 1902 which were a letter to the episcopate as well as one apostolic letter (Provida matris caritate) and one encyclical (Divinum illud munus). Leo XIII renamed the order after this as a sign of his esteem for them. The pope later granted her a private audience on 18 October 1897 in which he encouraged her work and renamed the order the Oblates of the Holy Spirit. It was at some stage that she corresponded with Saint Arnold Janssen regarding a "militia of the Holy Spirit" that would be dedicated to working against the Freemasons. In August 1906 the Archbishop of Lucca told her that he would not permit her prospective religious from vesting or taking their vows unless she resigned as the order's Superior General. Guerra resigned her position after reflection more so in light of internal friction with some nuns questioning the manner in which she was leading the congregation. Her order received papal approval from Pope Pius X on 6 March 1911. Saint John Bosco once referred to Guerra as a "golden pen" in reference to her spiritual writings.

Guerra died on 11 April 1914 (on Holy Saturday) and is buried in Lucca at the church of Sant'Agostino. Her order continues its work with houses in nations such as Iran and the Philippines amongst others; in 2008 there were 232 members of her order in 36 houses across the globe.

Pope John XXIII beatified her on 26 April 1959 in Saint Peter's Basilica.

Blessed Elena Guerra, pray for us!

ONE MONTH DEVELOPING BABY

Your spiritually adopted baby has been quite active over the past month. Already your baby is 10,000 times bigger than at conception. Your baby has developed the foundations of his brain, spinal cord, and nervous system by the 20th day. His heart began to beat on the 21st day and is pumping blood through its own circulatory system. The blood type can be different from his mother's. Your baby is most vulnerable the next month of being aborted. Pray that the Lord of Life might move the heart of his mother to give him the most precious gift of all—the gift of Life.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The disciples gathered on the fiftieth day after the Resurrection were not keeping their first Pentecost. For them, Pentecost was the fiftieth day after Passover, a feast of the first fruits of the harvest. It was the second most important feast of the year. Today, Jews gather on the eve of the feast to study scripture and the law, and after the feast begins at sundown, spend the day in joyful social gatherings. The meaning of the celebration is the giving of the law on Mount Sinai, so for Christians the connection to the gifts of the Holy Spirit is obvious. In Sicily and in the Pantheon in Rome, today the descent of the Holy Spirit is enacted with a stunning ritual. Some churches there have an "eye" in the roof open to the sky, called an oculus. After the Gospel today, thousands of rose petals fall from the oculus onto the assembly. Churches and homes are decked in greenery and flowers to express the new life the Holy Spirit brings on this, the "birthday of the Church."

WITH DEEP GRATITUDE

We appreciate the two generous parishioners who have donated a cincture. If Anyone is interested in donating $400 for the remaining 8 Priest's cinctures, please contact the Rectory. The name of the donor and their intention will be published on the Sunday issue of the Parish Bulletin.

Your kindness is highly appreciated!

The Shrine to the Unborn

Blessed by Cardinal O'Connor on December 28, 1993

*The Shrine is dedicated in Memory of the Children
Who Have Died Unborn*

We invite you to name your child(ren) and provide the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "Book of Life".

Often children who have died before birth have no grave or headstone, and sometimes not even a name. At The Church of The Holy Innocents, we invite you to name your child(ren) and to have the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "BOOK OF LIFE". Here, a candle is always lit in their memory. All day long people stop to pray. On the first Monday of every month, our 12:15pm Mass is celebrated in honor of these children and for the comfort of their families. We pray that you will find peace in knowing that your child(ren) will be remembered at the Shrine and honored by all who pray here.

We will inscribe the names of babies who have died before and at birth in our Book of Life, and as always, we invite you to visit the Shrine if you are in New York City.
